In addition to selling Muse mattresses direct to consumers, ViscoSoft targets regional retail retailers with a new line. An important feature of the new ViscoSoft.com website is the Sleeping Personality quiz, designed to help consumers determine which products to choose based on a series of questions related to their body type and sleep habits. The blog is dedicated to bedtime rituals, midnight snacks, and other sleep related content; video demonstrates how to install a mattress; and there is online customer service in the form of live chat.
